Seelyville Coal Thickness
CLARK County

The map is a compilation of historical coal thickness maps from the Illinois State Geological Survey. It is intended to provide a general overview of coal thicknesses across the county. The data used in this map is based on various sources, including historical mine records, geological surveys, and other relevant studies. The map's accuracy may vary due to the limitations of the available data and the methods used in its creation.

Map Explanation
-

Disclaimer
The map is for general information purposes only and should not be used for detailed planning or decision-making. The data used in the map is subject to revision or update, and users are encouraged to consult with local authorities for more detailed information.

Contact Information
For more information, contact the Illinois State Geological Survey at 1-800-377-4687. Visit the ISGS website at http://www.isgs.illinois.edu for more details.

October 27, 2009