Springfield Coal Elevation
PIATT County

County Coal Map Series
900C Coal Section
Map construction: May, 2015

Map Explanation
The Springfield Coal Elevation map depicts the depth and contouring of the coal bed from a variety of sources and provides a visual representation of the coal's depth across the county. The contour lines indicate areas of similar elevation, with higher numbers representing shallower coal beds.

References

Disclaimer
This map is intended for general information and does not represent the actual depth of the coal bed. Always consult local resources for the most accurate information.