Springfield Coal Sulfur

CLARK County

The Springfield Coal sulfur values in this map are based on data from recent studies and are not necessarily consistent with the information in the Illinois State Geological Survey's County Coal Map Series. The map and associated data are intended for use at a scale of 1:100,000.

Map Explanation

The map includes information on the distribution and concentration of coal sulfur. The map is based on data from recent studies and is intended for use at a scale of 1:100,000.

Disclaimer

The maps and data included in this map series are based on various sources and are subject to change. The information presented here is intended for general guidance only and may not be suitable for all purposes. Users should consult the Illinois State Geological Survey for the most current and accurate information.