Springfield Coal Thickness
LIVINGSTON County

Map Explanation:
The Springfield Coal map covers the county with a detailed coal thickness analysis for various locations. The map uses a color-coding system to indicate coal thickness values, with lighter colors representing thinner layers and darker colors indicating thicker layers. This type of map is crucial for understanding the coal resources in LIVINGSTON County, which can affect land use, economic development, and environmental planning.

References:

Disclaimer:
The map is not a substitute for professional geological opinions and should not be used for making decisions related to the use of coal resources.

More information on the ISGS and access to the map series can be found at the Illinois State Geological Survey website.