Springfield Coal Thickness

SALINE County

Map Explanation:

The maps are simplified versions of a series of County Coal Maps of Illinois. Each County Coal Map is based on data from the Illinois State Geological Survey's County Coal Map Series. The thickness data are based on a variety of sources, including surface and subsurface data. The maps also indicate the presence and absence of coal deposits.

References:

- Illinois State Geological Survey
- Various academic and geological sources
- Local mineral and geological surveys

Disclaimer:

The Illinois State Geological Survey makes no warranty, expressed or implied, as to the accuracy, completeness, or suitability of the maps for a particular purpose. The data used in these maps are subject to change, and the user should consult the latest available data for any specific application.

© Illinois State Geological Survey 2023 All rights reserved.