Springfield Coal Thickness
ST. CLAIR County

Map Explanation
The Springfield Coal is very thin in most of St. Clair County. It is estimated that the maximum coal thickness is 70 feet. The map is not intended to be a substitute for a geological survey. The map is intended to provide an overview of the coal deposits in the area.

References:

Disclaimer:
The maps are intended for general information purposes only and should not be used for any specific purpose or decision-making. The accuracy and completeness of the data contained herein are not guaranteed. The user assumes all risks associated with the use of this information. The data contained herein are subject to change without notice. The Illinois State Geological Survey is not responsible for any errors or omissions in the data. The data is provided "as is" without warranty of any kind, express or implied, including but not limited to the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.