Colchester Coal Elevation
JACKSON County

Map Explanation

The map and data that support it are based on information derived from a variety of sources and provide an approximate indication of the location of coal deposits. The data and map are intended to promote a broad understanding of coal resources and should not be substituted for detailed geological studies.

Disclaimer

The Illinois State Geological Survey and the University of Illinois are not responsible for any errors or omissions in the data presented. Use of the map is at your own risk. Map data are subject to change due to ongoing research and data updates. For more information, visit the Illinois State Geological Survey website.